An Honorary Member shall have all the rights and duties of a Member save payment of dues. Honorary Membership may be renewed by Council at the commencement of each membership year.

1.9 Application for Membership

Application shall include prospective member's full name, address and other relevant contact information. If the membership fee is paid and the waiver accepted, the member shall be accepted for membership and the member shall be issued a membership card.

1.10 Suspension of Membership

Council shall have the right by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote to suspend the specific rights of any member for a period of up to three (3) months effective immediately upon notification to such member. Within fourteen (14) days from receipt of notification, the member may present a notice of appeal to the Council. Within fourteen (14) days from receipt of the notice of appeal, the President shall call a meeting of the Council for the purpose of reconsidering the suspension. The member shall be notified of this meeting and requested to present their appeal. The Council shall by two-thirds (2/3) majority vote, confirm or change the suspension.

If the suspension is upheld, the member may appeal the decision by petitioning Council within fourteen (14) days. A Review Committee will then be formed and shall consist of a minimum of three (3) and a maximum of six (6) members in good standing. The precise number of members on the Review Committee and the specific individuals who shall preside on the Review Committee must be acceptable and mutually agreed to by Council and the member appealing the suspension.

The Review Committee will evaluate the details provided and gather such information as they deem appropriate. The Review Committee shall render their judgement within fourteen (14) days of being formed. Their decision will be made on the basis of a simple majority decision and their decision shall be binding and final.

While a suspension is being appealed, the member shall retain all of their rights. Council shall furnish the member with a copy of this section together with the notification of suspension.

1.11 Expulsion from Membership

Council shall have the right by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote, to expel any member from the Club, effective immediately upon notification to such member. Within fourteen (14) days from receipt of the notification the member may present a notice of appeal to the Council. Within fourteen (14) days from the notice of appeal, the President shall call a meeting of the Council for the purpose of reconsidering the expulsion. The member shall be notified of this meeting and requested to present their appeal. The Council shall, by two-thirds (2/3) majority vote, confirm or change the expulsion.

If the expulsion is upheld, the member may appeal the decision by petitioning Council within fourteen (14) days with the signatures of twenty-five (25) members to call a Special Meeting. Within forty-five (45) days from receipt of petition, the President shall call a Special Meeting of the general membership for reconsidering the expulsion.

While an expulsion is being appealed, the member shall be deemed to be under suspension and all of the member's rights are suspended. Council shall furnish the member with a copy of this section together with the notification of expulsion.

1.12 Withdrawal of Membership

A member may withdraw from the Club by notifying the Council in writing with his/her intention to withdraw. The Council may withhold acceptance of any resignation until all indebtedness has been paid, all Club funds and property have been returned and all rights to the use of the Club name, emblem and other insignia have been surrendered by the withdrawing member.

1.13 Dues

Dues, and the time for payment of dues, shall be set by Council from time to time. Council rulings on dues may be varied by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote at the Annual General Meeting of the members.

 - (ii) Have custody of the cups, trophies and awards of the Club during the Vice-President's term of office.
 - (iii) Exercise the President's duties in the President's absence and succeed to office upon it becoming vacant.
 - (iv) Work on special assignments and projects as requested by Council.
 - (v) Assist the other members of Council.

- 2.6 Treasurer/Secretary
The Treasurer/Secretary shall:
- (i) Receive and deposit all Club monies.
 - (ii) Keep a correct record of all monies received and disbursed.
 - (iii) Prepare a budget of expenditures for each ensuing year.
 - (iv)
 - (v) Ensure appropriate inventory records are maintained
 - (vi) Arrange for insurance.
 - (vii) Prepare annual financial statements.
 - (viii) Have charge of the Seal, books and other records of the Club.

- 2.7 Past-President
The retiring President shall become the Past-President in the succeeding year.

- The Past-President shall:
- (i) Be a Director of the Club.
 - (ii) Be available for consultation with Club and Council members.
 - (iii) Be responsible for liaison with other ski and sporting bodies and government for the advancement of skiing and other sports.
 - (iv) Be responsible for all matters relating to the history of the Calgary Ski Club.

In the event that the retiring President is unable to serve as Past-President, or is elected to another Council position, Council shall appoint a former President or Vice-President to the position.

In the event that no former President or Vice-President is available to serve, Council shall appoint a retiring Officer or Director, or a former Officer or Director to serve according to the prescribed Bylaw on Vacancy.

- 2.8 Directors
Council by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote may vary the number of Directors from time to time and vary their duties.

- 2.9 Tenure
All terms of office shall be for one (1) year, being the period of the first of May following the election to the thirtieth of April of the following year. A member of Council may withdraw from their office by giving notice to the Treasurer/Secretary, or in the case of the Treasurer/Secretary, to the President, or announce such withdrawal at a Council meeting.

2.10 Removal From Office

Any member of Council may be removed from their position by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of Council at a meeting called for that purpose. Council shall cause a Special Meeting of the Membership to be convened no later than sixty (60) days after such removal if such a request is made by the removed Council member, and the members by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote may vary, confirm or quash the Council resolution.

2.11 Vacancy

A Council position becomes vacant when an individual ceases to occupy that position. Vacancies may be filled by Council on a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote.

Any twenty-five (25) Club members may require Council to call a Special Meeting of the members to review such appointment, and in that event the members may on a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote, vary, confirm or quash the appointment by Council.

2.12 Remuneration

No member of Council shall receive any remuneration for his/her services on Council, other than a nominal amount of not more than one ($1.00) dollar per year as may be required to comply with insurance contracts.

This does not prevent a member of Council being paid for other services to the Club.

Each Council member, upon successful completion of a full term in office, shall be granted an allotment of two hundred and fifty (250) CSC Points for use in subsequent years, in accordance with the CSC Rewards Program procedures as set out by Council from time to time.

2.13 Election of Council Members

Council elections shall be held at the Annual General Meeting (AGM).

In the event that an AGM cannot be held due to lack of a quorum, Council will continue in office until the AGM is held.

2.14 Nominations

Council shall appoint a Nomination Committee consisting of one (1) Officer who shall preside as Chair and two (2) members of the Club who shall have been members for two (2) consecutive or cumulative years.

Nominations shall be in writing supported by three (3) signatures and the signature of the nominee member. All nominations shall be accepted by the Nominating Committee and placed before the Annual General Meeting for a vote.

2.15 Election Procedure

The President shall conduct the election. Should the President be unable to attend the AGM, then the designated alternate from Council shall conduct the election.

The usual method of taking a vote shall be viva voce (by the voice). The responsibility of announcing, or declaring, the vote rests upon the Chair, and the Chair, therefore, has the right to have the vote taken again, by rising, if the Chair is in doubt as to the result, and even to have the vote counted, if necessary. The Chair cannot have the vote taken by ballot or by yeas and nays (roll call) unless it is required by a vote of the members present at the AGM.

When the vote is taken by voice or show of hands any member has a right to require a division of the assembly by having the affirmative rise and then the negative, so that all may see how members vote. Either before or after a decision any member may call for, or demand, a count, and, if seconded, the Chair must put the question on ordering a count to a vote by the members present at the AGM.

The successful nominee is elected with a majority vote, that is a majority of the votes cast, ignoring blanks.

3.0 MEMBERSHIP MEETINGS

3.1 Quorum

A quorum of membership for the Annual General Meeting or a Special Meeting shall be twenty (20) members having voting rights or ten (10%) per cent of the members, whichever is the lesser.

Voting shall be only by eligible members in attendance at these membership meetings. Annual General Meetings and Special Meetings may be attended only by current paid-up Members, Honorary Members or Complimentary Members sitting on Council.

3.2 Rules of Order

All meetings shall be governed by Robert's Rules of Order insofar as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of The Societies Act. The President or Vice-President shall preside at membership meetings and in the absence of both, any member may preside, on majority resolution.

3.3 Annual General Meeting (AGM)

The Annual General Meeting shall be held as close as possible to April 30 each year at a time and place as may be set by Council, which shall give at least fourteen (14) days' notice to the membership of such meeting. Copies of the official examination of the club's financial records shall be made available to the members at the AGM.

If it is not possible to hold the AGM by April 30 for any reason, including lack of a quorum, the meeting shall be held as soon as possible following normal requirements of notice to members of the AGM.

3.4 Special Meetings

Special meetings may be called by the President or Council on at least fourteen (14) days' notice. Council shall call a special Meeting on the written request of any twenty-five (25) members. Notice of Special Meetings shall be communicated to all members having voting rights, and shall state the reason for which the meeting is being called. Notice may be given by placing a notice in the Club newsletter. Voting at Special Meetings shall be by secret ballot unless otherwise resolved by the membership.

- 3.5 Council Meetings
Council Meetings shall be held at least once a month. Any three (3) members of Council may call a Council Meeting on reasonable notice to the other members of Council. A quorum of Council for Council Meetings shall be five (5) Council members including one (1) Officer of the Club.

4.0 FINANCIAL

- 4.1 Fiscal Year
The fiscal year shall be from the first of May to the thirtieth of April of the following year..

- 4.2 Borrowing Powers
The Club may exercise such borrowing powers as are authorized by The Societies Act, R.S.A. 1970 and amendments thereto.

- 4.3 Official Examination of Club Financial Records
The books, accounts and records of the Secretary and Treasurer shall have an official examination of the club's financial records conducted at least once each year by an accountant recognized under the Alberta Regulated Professions Act OR by two members of the Club elected for that purpose at the Annual General Meeting.

Such official examiners(s) at the Annual General Meeting for the Club shall submit a complete and proper statement of the standing of the books for the previous fiscal year. The fiscal year of the Club in each year shall be May 1st to April 30th.

- 4.4 Capital Funds
Capital Funds may be established for special purposes.
These Capital Funds shall be established by Special Resolutions stating:
- (i) The purpose of the Fund.
 - (ii) The method of operation of the fund including the method by which the Fund monies shall be kept separate from general Calgary Ski Club funds, and the signing officers for the Fund.
 - (iii) The method by which monies are to be raised for the Fund.
 - (iv) The reasons and the method by which the monies may be withdrawn from the Fund.
 - (v) From time to time monies accumulated in these funds may be invested to maximize returns while preserving the capital in the Fund.

- 4.5 The Club shall adopt full accrual accounting procedures for significant expenses such as capital assets and leasehold improvements.

5.0 NOTICES

A notice may be given to any member by mailing it to them by ordinary mail or by electronic method at the address shown on the records of the Club, and such notice shall be deemed to have been served on the date of mailing of same, or by publication in the Club newsletter.

6.0 INSPECTION OF RECORDS

Any member shall have the right from time to time to inspect the books and records of the Club at the Club's place of business, during the Club's business hours.

7.0 AMENDMENT TO THE BYLAWS

The Bylaws may be amended by a Special Resolution passed by an affirmative vote of not less than seventy-five (75%) per cent of those members who are present at a Special Meeting called for that purpose, or at the Annual General Meeting, but in the event of the latter, notice shall be provided of such proposed amendments at least twenty-one (21) days prior to the Annual General Meeting.

8.0 SEAL

The Club seal shall be affixed to any instrument the execution of which is not in the ordinary course of the Club's business and the seal shall not be affixed except in the presence of such Officers and Directors as Council may from time to time direct, and such Officers and Directors shall sign and seal such instrument.

9.0 INTERPRETATION AS PER ARBITRATION

In the event of a dispute as to the interpretation of these Bylaws, which cannot be resolved to the satisfaction of the majority of the members, the matter may be referred to arbitration in accordance with The Arbitration Act, R.S.A. 1070 and amendments thereto.

10.0 DISSOLUTION OF THE CLUB

In the event that the Calgary Ski Club should resolve to terminate activities or be otherwise wound up, all assets shall be disbursed as follows:

- (i) All trophies and Club records shall be donated to the Glenbow Museum in the City of Calgary.
- (ii) All land and properties shall be sold.
- (iii) All net assets including cash in hand, all bank deposits, including special Capital Funds and the proceeds from the sale of land and properties shall be donated to The Calgary Foundation in the name of the Calgary Ski Club Trust Fund to be used to further recreational skiing in all its variety for the benefit of Calgarians.
